

Wallace Earle "Wally" Guile, son of Ernest Ray (1904-1984) and Edith Irene (Rose) (1901-1943) Guile, was born 6 January 1924 Lansing, Ingham County, Michigan. Wally probably attended Okemos High School with the class of 1942. He was mentioned in a 1939

Lansing State Journal, November 9, 1940

The Okemos school band will give a concert November 13 at 8:15 o'clock in the new auditorium at Michigan State college for the State Farm Bureau convention. November 16, the band will give its first annual concert in the school gymnasium. The program will be made up of the following: Ruth Woodworth will sing "Il Bacio" and "Because"; Phyllis Woodworth and Wally Guile will sing "Playmates", Kay Trute will give an exhibition of baton twirling. Mr. Brower, assistant director, and Douglas Lewsader, the band's president, will each lead the band. Mr. Musselman is the director and will be in charge of the concert.

Lansing State Journal write up as a veteran member of the OHS football team, playing in the half-back position. Wally quit school and in 1943 joined the US Army. He also married, 28 March 1944 in Lansing, Ingham County, Michigan, Esther Augusta Mehling. Wally served his country during World War II from 1943 until honorable discharge in 1946. After the war he returned to Okemos High and graduated with the class of 1948.

Wally and Esther had 4 children together. Sadly their son, Michael Dean, died at 15 months of age in 1956. The Guile's divorced in 1975. Esther did not remarry. Wally, about 1981, wed Lorna Jean Clark.

Wally died 10 August 2001, Lansing. He was interred Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens, DeWitt, Clinton County, Michigan. Esther, born 29 January 1924, Wisconsin, died 12 October 2013, Lansing. Lorna was still living in 2018.

WALLACE E. GUILLE

LANSING

Wallace E. Guile was born January 6, 1924; died August 10, 2001 at the age of 77.

Surviving are his first wife, Esther, who is the mother of his children, Sharon, Barbara (Guile) Pickcott, and Randall; 5 grandchildren; and 2 great-grandsons. Also surviving are his loving wife of 20 years, Lorna, her children and grandchildren; sisters, Margie Shumway and Phyllis Hansen; half-sisters, Carolyn and Connie; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and his "other" daughter, Mary Valerio.

Wally was preceded in death by his son, Michael Dean; parents, Ernest and Edith Guile; brother, Ronald; sister Patricia Morris; a half-sister and brother Debbie and Donnie. Wally was a veteran of World War II, retired from Capitol Cadillac, and resided in the Lansing/Okemos area all his life. He enjoyed traveling, camping, fishing, bowling and golf. Memorial Services will be held Wednesday, August 15, at 10 .m. at Gorsline-Runciman East Chapel, 1730 E. Grand River Ave., East Lansing.

GUILE, WALLACE E. Lansing

Wallace E. Guile was born January 6, 1924; died August 10, 2001 at the age of 77. Surviving are his first wife, Esther, who is the mother of his children, Sharon, Barbara (Guile) Pickcott, and Randall; 5 grandchildren; and 2 great-grandsons. Also surviving are his loving wife of 20 years, Lorna, her children and grandchildren; sisters, Margie Shumway and Phyllis Hansen; half-sisters, Carolyn and Connie; numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, friends and his "other" daughter, Mary Valerio. Wally was preceded in death by his son, Michael Dean; parents, Ernest and Edith Guile; brother, Ronald; sister, Patricia Morris; half-sister and brother, Debbie and Donnie. Wally was a veteran of World War II, retired from Capitol Cadillac, and resided in the Lansing/Okemos area all of his life. He enjoyed traveling, camping, fishing, bowling and golf. Memorial Services will be held Wednesday, August 15, at 10 a.m. at Gorsline-Runciman East Chapel, 1730 E. Grand River Ave., East Lansing. In lieu of flow-