SCOFES HURT IN ACCIDENT

Car Jumps Curb, Crashes Into Dairy Store; Girl Injured

Peter Scofes, president of the Famous Grill, was recovering in Ingham County Chest hospital Tuesday from injuries suffered late Monday afternoon when the car he was driving plunged over the curb at Pennsylvania and Michigan aves. and rammed the side of a dairy store and a fruit market. Mr. Scofes suffered chest and head injuries. His condition was not regarded as serious. He is expected to be released from the hospital within a few days.

The accident occurred when Mr. Scofes started to park preparatory to visiting a dentist's office in the neighborhood. The accelerator on the new car he was driving reportedly stuck as he avoided several pedestrians at the corner, the car dashed over the curb and struck two stores.

Dorothy Travis, 17, of R. 1 Mason, a clerk in the dairy store, was slightly hurt. She was treated at Edward W. Sparrow hospital for cuts and bruises and released.

Adjustors Tuesday were making an inspection to determine the monetary damage to the two buildings and the car.

Dorothy married Doyle Lloyd Fockler in 1958. Doyle, born 3 December 1937, was a US Army veteran, serving as a Sergeant during the Korean Conflict.

Doyle, born 19 October 1933, was a heating and cooling technician for residential and commercial buildings. Doyle and Dorothy had 5 children but unfortunately divorced in 1989. Doyle died 2 January 2001, Ingham County. He was interred Lake City Cemetery, Lake City, Missaukee County, Michigan.

Dorothy was a long-time employee of CACS in Michigan from where she retired. She later moved to Columbia, Maury County, Tennessee. Dorothy died 5 March 2017, Columbia and was interred Rose Hill, Columbia, Maury County.
