

Norman Edward Dunn, son of James (1869 England - 1958) and Annie (Coumbes) (1868 England - 1936) Dunn, was born 14 April 1910, Calumet, Houghton County, Michigan. Norman graduated in 1929 from Northern State Teachers College, now Northern Michigan University, Marquette, Marquette County, Michigan. Norman's college graduation picture was printed in the school's yearbook, Kawbawgam. He later received a master's degree from Michigan State College, East Lansing, Ingham County, Michigan.

Norman married Helene Jeanette Ulseth 15

1949 Okemos Tomahawk

August 1936.

The News-Palladium (Benton Harbor, Michigan) Saturday 12 June 1948

NORMAN E. DUNN QUILTS POST HERE

Named Principal Of Okemos High School

Norman E. Dunn, history teacher and sophomore class counselor at the St. Joseph high school for the past six years, has accepted the principalship of the Okemos high school which is located about three miles from East Lansing.

Mr. Dunn will take over the duties of principal there when school opens in September. The Okemos high school is a training school for students studying teaching at the

Norman E. Dunn Quits Post Here

Named Principal Of Okemos High School

Norman E. Dunn, history teacher and sophomore class counselor at the St. Joseph high school for the past six years, has accepted the principalship of the Okemos high school which is located about three miles from East Lansing.

Mr. Dunn will take over the duties of principal there when school opens in September. The Okemos high school is a training school for students studying teaching at the Michigan State college, East Lansing, and Mr. Dunn will work with the practice teachers from that college.

He was recommended for the position by Edward Markwald, former Berrien county school commissioner who is now superintendent of schools in Okemos.

This summer, Mr. Dunn will complete the work on his master of arts degree at Michigan State college. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Northern Michigan college at Marquette.

Before teaching in St. Joseph, Mr. Dunn taught at Corunna and Reese. He is originally from Calumet.

Going with Mr. Dunn will be his wife, Helene, and their two children, Nancy 10 and Robert 8.

Michigan State college, East Lansing, and Mr. Dunn will work with the practice teachers from that college.

He was recommended for the position by Edward Markwald, former Berrien county school commissioner who is now superintendent of schools in Okemos.

This summer, Mr. Dunn will complete the work on his master of arts degree at Michigan state college. He received his bachelor of arts degree from Northern Michigan college at Marquette.

Before teaching in St. Joseph, Mr. Dunn taught at Corunna and Reese. He is originally from Calumet.

Going with Mr. Dunn will be his wife, Helene, and their two children, Nancy 10 and Robert 8.

Norman was principal at Okemos High for two years, 1948-1950. He resigned in May of 1950 for another teaching position. He and his family moved to the Bay City, Bay County, Michigan area. Later Norman would

Lansing State Journal, May 28, 1950

Okemos Principal Resigns Position

Norman E. Dunn, principal of Okemos high school, has resigned his position to accept a job in Handy high school of Bay City, it was announced by Edward L. Murdock, superintendent.

The announcement said Mr. Dunn will be the 11th grade counselor and in charge of vocational information for the school.

Popular with students and faculty during his two years at Okemos, Mr. Dunn came to Okemos from St. Joseph where he was a social studies instructor and counselor.

be in the guidance department of St. Joseph High School, St. Joseph,

Berrien County, Michigan. He also was the registrar at Schoolcraft Community College, Livonia, Wayne County, Michigan. Norman retired from Schoolcraft Community College in 1972. He died, after a lengthy illness, 4 November 1975, Livonia. He and Helene celebrated 39 years and 2 children together. Helene, born 8 October 1905, died 19 April 1991.

Norman was interred Floral Gardens Cemetery, Bay City, Bay County.

Detroit Free Press (Detroit, Michigan) Wednesday 5 November 1975

NORMAN E. DUNN, COLLEGE REGISTRAR

Services for Norman E. Dunn, retired registrar for Schoolcraft Community College, will be at 11 a.m. Thursday at the R. G. & G. R. Harris Funeral Home, 185451 Farmington Road, Livonia.

The Herald Palladium, November 25, 1975

Norman Dunn

Norman E. Dunn, of Livonia, Mich., formerly of Kingsley avenue, St. Joseph, died Nov. 4, 1975, in Livonia following a long illness.

While living in this area, he was with the guidance department of St. Joseph High school. In Livonia, he was registrar at Schoolcraft College.

Survivors include his wife, Helene; a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Smith, Severna Park, Md.; and a son, Atty. Robert Dunn, Troy, Mich.

Funeral services and burial was in Bay City, Mich. The Penzien funeral home, Bay City, Mich., was in charge of arrangements. Memorials may be made to Norman Dunn loans for student services at Schoolcraft college.

Mr. Dunn, 65, of Livonia, died Tuesday in St. Mary Hospital. He retired from his college post three years ago.

A graduate of Northern Michigan University,, he received his master's degree in education from Michigan State University. He was a member of the Michigan and National Education Associations.

Surviving are his wife, Helene; a daughter, Mrs. Nancy Smith; a son, Robert N., three brothers and five grandchildren.

Burial will be in Floral Gardens Cemetery, Bay City.