Miss Moldenhauer Speaks Her Vows

Miss Eunice Marie Moldenhauer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor G. Moldenhauer of Okemos, was married last Saturday evening, June 1, to William Frederick Dorn of Okemos and Benton Harbor, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Dorn of Okemos, at the Emanuel First Lutheran church in Lansing. The Rev. Mr. Karl F. Krauss officiated in the presence of about 250 guests.

Attending the bride, gowned in white taffeta, were Mrs. Edgar J. Wolcott of Okemos, matron of honor, and Mrs. George Osborne of Okemos and Miss Lois Henderson of Mason, bridesmaids. The bride's fingertip veil was held by a tiara of white satin and seed pearls, and she carried pink rosebuds and gardenias. Mrs. Wolcott wore pink organza, and bridesmaids were dressed alike in gowns of net, one in light blue and the other in peach.

Max Fuller was best man, and ushers were Arthur Redman and Richard Fuller. Music during the ceremony was played by Mrs. S. S. VanWaggonen. The ring bearer was the small nephew of the bride, James Wolcott.

A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. White tulips, white lilacs and pink candles decorated the rooms. Mrs. Dorn is a graduate of Cleary college, Ypsilanti.

Fred registered for the draft on 16 Oct 1940 and served in World War II in the US Army attaining rank of TSgt.
